The award for Outstanding Foundation was awarded to Betty White, CEO of The Health Foundation of Greater Indianapolis.
The Indianapolis Emergency Medical Services Report will be postponed until February 2017.

Shelia Guenin, vice president, Long Term Care, HHC, gave the Long Term Care report. Mrs. Guenin said that The National Healthcare Coalition Conference, organized by MESH, was held earlier this month. Ms. Guenin had several takeaways from the conference that are important to the Long Term Care community. They are: the development of hazard assessments; communication plans for coordinating during emergencies; community involvement with local coalitions; and community emergency drill involvement. Ms. Guenin also noted there are staffing challenges nationwide, especially with nurses. One area where our facilities are aiming to improve is in the position of the facility administrator and/or executive director. 7 facilities currently have interns who train for 6 months so that they can step into these positions when there is a retirement or job change. Ms. Guenin reminded the Board that in this season of holidays, there are a lot of visitors to the facilities and a great number of facilities are enjoying family dinners where the resident’s families can dine in the facilities with their relatives. Ms. Guenin recognized staff who gives up time with their own families during the holidays to serve these facilities.

Margie Payne, CEO, Midtown Community Mental Health, gave the Midtown Community Mental Health Report. Ms. Payne reported that the Midtown Community Mental Health Board met last month and discussed the WRAP program and its impact, the December 2 opening of a new facility, and finances. Ms. Payne said that Santa will be giving gifts to the group home members, some of whom do not have family or the resources to have presents otherwise.

Matthew Gutwein, president and CEO, HHC, gave the President and CEO report. Mr. Gutwein reported that Mayor Hogsett announced a comprehensive plan to reform the criminal justice system in Marion County. These plans include: Midtown Mental Health being proactively involved with IMPD officers; training public safety partners in crisis training; establishing a mobile crisis unit to help public safety partners intervene; in the period after an arrest, but before charges are filed, there would be a mental health evaluation; working with prosecutors to establish a program where mental health treatment is an alternative to jail time; at the adult detention center, individuals would have immediate assessments and care; post-conviction and post-release, there will be a combined effort to get individuals the mental health care that they need. Mr. Gutwein stated that Dr. Lisa Harris has been named to Becker’s Hospital Review’s list of 130 Women Hospital and Health System Leaders to Know in 2016. Mr. Greg Fehribach has been named to the Architectural and Transportation Barriers
Compliance Access Board by President Obama. Mr. Gutwein expressed his sadness on the loss of former Indianapolis Mayor Hudnut and extended sympathies to his family.

Dr. Virginia Caine, director, MCPHD gave the MCPHD report. Dr. Caine stated her gratitude for the Ryan White HIV Services Program and the impact that it has had on the Indianapolis community and the nation as a whole. On December 2, Brothers United awarded Mike Wallace, director, Ryan White HIV Services Program, the Lifetime Achievement Award. Dr. Caine also attended The National Healthcare Coalition Conference, where she introduced the keynote speaker, and applauded the great work that MESH does on a local and national scale. Dr. Caine recognized 3 individuals who recently retired who were longstanding and cherished employees of the Marion County Health Department. Health by Design has moved into a new space. The Maternal Child Program is holding a forum on opioid use during pregnancy.

Dr. Lisa Harris, medical director and CEO, Eskenazi Health, stated that, after 26 years, Dr. Gerardo Gomez has announced his retirement. Dr. Harris thanked him for his service and helping to make Eskenazi (then Wishard) a level 1 trauma center, amongst other lasting impact. Dr. Ben Zaraur will be taking over the role of Medical Director. Dave Shaw, former Chief Information Officer, has accepted a job at HHC. His replacement will be Scott Morris, formerly of HHC. An EPIC user survey has indicated that patients are satisfied with the electronic medical record system.

Since this was a public meeting, Dr. Miner asked if there were any comments or questions from the public or additional business. Ms. Payne stated that the Engagement Center will be opening on January 2, 2017.

There was no further business. Mr. Drummer motioned to adjourn the meeting. Dr. Canal seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned by unanimous voice consent.

The next meeting of the Board will be held on Monday, January 9, 2017, at 1:30 p.m.
