Dr. Miner reported that the Eskenazi Health Committee met on November 17, 2015. The Committee reviewed the minutes from the previous meeting and heard a report from Dean Jay Hess from the Indiana University School of Medicine (“IUSOM”). Dr. Hess gave a current state of affairs of IUSOM and how IUSOM interacts with the Eskenazi Health system. The Committee also reviewed the Purchase Recommendations, Appointments, Reappointments, and Changes to Privileges, Board Certification Extension, and the Privilege Forms.

Ms. Daniels gave the Public Health/Healthy Babies (PH/HB) Committee report for both October and November 2015. In October 2015, the PH/HB committee heard a 3rd Quarter financial report from Tara Parchman, director of finance, MCPHD. The committee also heard a presentation from the Neighborhood Health and Housing department on the benefits gained from a city having a Neighborhood Health and Housing Department within their Health Department. The November 17, 2015, meeting heard a report from Dr. Eva Muloma, medical director, TB Control Program, MCPHD. Dr. Muloma covered the scope of work that the TB Control program provides as well as its effectiveness and specific challenges in Marion County.

Ernie Vargo, president and CEO, Eskenazi Health Foundation, reported that the Foundation has put together a philanthropic cabinet in order to raise support for the Sandra Eskenazi Center for Brain Innovation. The Foundation’s 2015 goal was $8 million in contributions and they have currently received $11 million in contributions.
There will be no IEMS, Midtown Mental Health Advisory Board, or Long Term Care reports for today’s meeting.

Matthew R. Gutwein, president and CEO, HHC, stated that the Eskenazi Hospital Campus has been given a gold certification by the U.S. Green Building Council. Mr. Gutwein is very proud of the grants department, which has received 25 new grants, bringing in $35 million in new grants just this year. 16 Tech is an effort to bring life sciences and biotech innovation to downtown Indianapolis. The City-County Council has issued bonds for this exciting project. Mr. Gutwein gave his sympathies for the Paris tragedy and highlighted the efforts of HHC’s emergency preparedness efforts. In the promising light of a new mayor of the City of Indianapolis, HHC would like to thank Mayor Ballad for his service to Indianapolis and support of HHC. Lastly, Mr. Gutwein would like to express his sorrow at the passing of Indianapolis activist Amos Brown.

Dr. Virginia Caine, director, MCPHD gave the MCPHD report. Dr. Caine stated that the MCPHD Anti-Tobacco department had an exhibit table at the Indiana Apartment Trade Show. The MCPHD Diabetes department, along with the Marion County Minority Health Coalition, held a conference on diabetes which had over 200 attendees. A Butler University pharmacy professor was the keynote speaker and gave information on diabetes medication, which is a popular topic among the attendees. The Community Based Care department saw 600 clients at seven locations during their community flu clinics. Dr. Caine was a key speaker at a conference to discourage tweens and teens from smoking. She was also able to go to Capitol Hill and speak to the women’s caucus regarding community challenges related to Hepatitis C. The first planning meeting for the MCPHD community health improvement plan was very successful. Dr. Caine also echoed Mr. Gutwein’s sentiments as to the loss of Amos Brown.

Dr. Lisa Harris, medical director and CEO, Eskenazi Health, began her report by stating that Jessica Barth, Chief Counsel & VP, Eskenazi Health, was honored at IBJ’s Women of Influence breakfast for her great work at Eskenazi Health as well as her contributions across Indianapolis. Eskenazi Health is happy to have three honorees for the 2015 Tony and Mary Hulman Health Achievement Awards. Along with the support of the Eskenazi Health Foundation, the Sandra Eskenazi Center for Brain Care Innovation was awarded a federal grant by the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality. Eskenazi Health is a proud sponsor of Second Helpings annual ball.
Since this was a public meeting, Dr. Miner asked if there were any comments or questions from the public or additional business. There were no comments.

There was no further business. Ms. Daniels motioned to adjourn the meeting. Mr. Eberhardt seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned by unanimous voice consent.

The next meeting of the Board will be held on Tuesday, December 15, 2015, at 1:30 p.m.
