Margie Payne, vice president, Mental Health Operations, Midtown Mental Health Center, reported that there was no Midtown Mental Health Center Board of Trustees meeting held in November 2009. However, she stated that Midtown was a recipient of the Indiana State Mental Health Association’s “Heroes in the Fight Award.” Midtown received the award for work on early schizophrenia intervention.

Dr. Virginia Caine, director, Marion County Health Department (MCHD) presented an H1N1 Update. To date, MCHD has immunized 36,248 children. MCHD plans to have completed all school immunization requests before the beginning of the December 2009 winter holiday. Forty-nine percent of high-risk children have also been immunized. Dr. Caine stated that one vaccine lot is being recalled because the dosage was not as strong as necessary. MCHD received 340 doses of this lot. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommended not re-vaccinating people who received the H1N1 vaccination from the recalled lot. Children ages 6-9 will received an additional vaccination for H1N1. Dr. Caine and Dr. Judy Monroe, Indiana State Department of Health Commissioner, will participate in a press conference to mark the beginning of H1N1 vaccinations conducted in pharmacies throughout the city. Kroger and Walgreen pharmacies are among those that will give H1N1 vaccinations. The cost will be around $20.00 per vaccination. The vaccines will be given to general public and will begin in early January 2010. Dr. Caine also stated that hospitals are limiting visitation to patients during the high-risk influenza months.

Dr. Lisa E. Harris’ report included information on WHS status as a major teaching hospital. She gave statistics from a five-year survey supporting this status. WHS has 73 accredited fellow programs. There are 217 fellows; the highest of any hospital in the United States. WHS is also among 36% of hospitals to provide fully paid health insurance for the program participants and among 27% of hospitals to provide paid health insurance for participant’s families. Dr. George Roush has been hired as Dean of Diversity at Indiana University School of Medicine. One of the duties as Dean will be to recruit from high schools. WHS is a sponsor for IUPUI Diversity Week.

There was no further business so the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting of the Board will be the Annual Meeting and will be held on Monday, January 11, 2009 at 1:30 p.m. at WHS, Outpatient East Building, Room T2008 A&B, 1001 West Tenth Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.
